

III. The Logical Bible Lesson

You have certainly asked yourself what the icons, names, etc., pictured on the medallion on the title page of the book, signify. The medallion covers all the important themes needed for studying the Bible and explains everything that one must know about the meaning of life in our temporal, coarse material world; however, it also covers everything that must be known for the ethereal world in Heaven.

You will receive an additional, deeper explanation of single sections with the notes which are always marked with a number " " after a word or sentence. The connections and logical insights will be dealt with more Fully and explained more concretely there.

Take time to read this book calmly and do leave aside possible prejudices. The beginning, and the explanation of the different phases of the medallion may read like a fairy tale from the Tales of Thousand and One Nights. At the end of this book, you will find that many unanswered questions of your religion and dogmas are finally answered in a logical manner. The knowledge you will have acquired from reading this book will make you happier. The knowledge about our existence on Earth and, above all, the discovery that spiritual life continues in Heaven after our death here will influence you, too – lastingly, and in a positive way for your life as a human being.

Christ is the first born spiritual being with the characteristics of God (Kol. 1:15).

God and Christ are the only spiritual beings who combine in them female and male characteristics. Christ is the second highest spiritual being in Heaven.

He was chosen by God to be King in Heaven.

Yahweh is Christ and the son of God and God is EL.

EL or Eli, short for Elohim or Elias

(My God is Yahweh).

On clay tablets of Ugarit (approx. 6500 BC - 1200 BC) there is a text that reads: "God YW (YHWE or Yahweh) is SON OF EL, that is, Yahweh is Christ and the son of God and God is EL."

You can read in the Bible that there are supposed to have been many humans who lived for hundreds of years (Genesis 5: 1-32). And you can also read that many of them did not age until 80 to 100 years old, as we do today, but hundreds of years. The Bible reports of people who lived to be 777, 895, 912, 930, yes, even 962 years old. When people of today, who have had a good education available, hear Bible stories such as these, they naturally cannot do otherwise but laugh incredulously and point fingers at us people of faith. Every child today knows that the maximum life expectancy is 100 to 120 years. As God says in the Bible (Genesis 6.3), He would limit the life expectancy of a human being on Earth to about 120 years. How can people come to write down such wrong lifetimes in the Bible, surpassing the normal life expectancy by 100's of years? Because, as mentioned before, knowledge was handed down only orally for thousands of years and, naturally, the knowledge about reincarnation was lost more and more over time. I ask you to answer a person who rightfully laughs about such fairy tales like human beings such as Seth, Jared, Henoah, or Methusalem (today a term for a very old person) had lived hundreds of years, the following logical answer:

“These statements truly seem confusing and incredible because the knowledge about reincarnation has been lost in Christian teachings. However, all of this makes sense if you consider that these human beings lived on Earth several times and were repeatedly rein-carnated. Methusalem might have lived 10 times for 80 years as a human being on this Earth, a total of 800 years, until he finally reached his destination, to consolidate his belief in God, to redeem his atonement as a spiritual being after the fall from grace and to avoid being born again as a human being.”

Every spiritual being that did not have to be reborn as a human being did not return into Limbo, but into this sphere of Paradise. It was easier to live there in comfort. All other deceased human beings return back to Limbo over and over again as spiritual beings and had to wait there until the plan of salvation, which is the Last Judgement, was fulfilled there by Christ in the year 28 AD.

Not before the year 28 AD, when Jesus Christ died on the cross for us and ascended to Heaven 40 days later were the gates of Heaven opened again, and thus the plan of salvation was fulfilled. The plan of salvation comprises the Last Judgement, the decisive battle or Apocalypse, Armageddon or the Eschaton, the turning point, doomsday, and the resurrection of the spiritually dead.

This means that Christ descended into Hell with the army of Archangel Michael to put the power of Lucifer into its place after a huge battle and ascend into Heaven to open the gates of Heaven for all fallen spiritual beings forever.

In this way thousands of years have passed on Earth. Every now and then there were cultures which de-

1:23f; 2. Maccabees 7:27-28, see also Apocrypha], Ishmael was about one year older than Isaac, which makes him four years old.)

Hagar's and Ishmael's Exiles

Now began the jealousy of the mother Sarah towards Hagar as Sarah observed how the four year old Ishmael played with the three year old Isaac. Because she wanted to know that Isaac was protected by the inheritance laws of the first-born, Sarah demanded that Abraham send the slave Hagar and her son Ishmael away (Genesis 21,9f). Abraham disliked Sarah's words, but he heard this inner voice again, which he believed belonged to God. The voice said, "Do not be so distressed about the boy and your slave woman. Listen to whatever Sarah tells you because it is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned. I will make the son of the slave Ishmael into a nation also because he is your offspring." (Genesis 21:11-13) As we know from the Bible, Hagar and Ishmael were saved by God and later Ishmael married an Egyptian (Genesis 21:17-21). He became the first ancestor for twelve tribes of rulers.

Abraham wants to sacrifice his son Isaac on the Mountain Moriah

Baal/Lucifer's devilish plan to convince Abraham to sacrifice his only son to God entered the last round. As he had done so often before, Abraham, who had just cast out his first-born son Ishmael, did not listen to the voice of Yahweh/Christ, but to that of Baal/Lucifer as Baal/Lucifer persuaded him to carry out the most heathen of all thinkable sacrificial rituals, a human sacrifice. With his plan, Yahweh/Christ's plan to build up a people of God on Earth, through Isaac and his descendants, would have been foiled. Abraham banished his son Ishmael for Sarah's sake, and now he is expected to sacrifice his beloved Isaac who is about seven years old, just to prove his faith in God to God?

Although Lucifer did not know the whole plan of salvation, he did know that Isaac had a key role in Yahweh/Christ's plan. In this way, he actually succeeded in convincing Abraham of a so-called great test, which involved sacrificing the only son he had conceived with his beloved Sarah to this apparent God as proof of his love. It is downright outrageous how Lucifer repeatedly succeeded in luring Abraham and many people after him, with spirit talks or dreams to commit evil deeds. How can humans today and how could Abraham then, assume at all that the Almighty God and Creator of all beings needed a human sacrifice from Abraham as proof of his love and loyalty? Only fallen spiritual beings, who are totally demented – as one would say today - can have thoughts such as this. Lucifer thought that way along with his likewise fallen fellows in Hell. After all, it is written in the Bible: God does not like fire and animal sacrifices at all. How then can one proceed on the assumption that our Creator, our Beloved God, wanted a human sacrifice? Baal means “Lord” and Lucifer as Lord was able to entrap high spiritual beings such as Abraham - and later others who were born directly from Heaven into a human life - when God himself did not protect these chosen humans and equip them with special powers.

Only when Christ was born in the body of Jesus, the King in Heaven showed that he could withstand temptations and traps as a human being during his incarnation as Jesus. We know about the supposedly greatest spiritual fight between Jesus as a human being and Lucifer. But I will talk about this in one of the following chapters.

It is only logical that God, respectively Yahweh/Christ, sent an angel to deter Abraham from thrusting the dagger into him so that Isaac was not killed by the hands of his own father, Abraham.

We can only guess what a psychological wound Isaac must have carried away from this. For how would you feel if your own father wanted to slaughter you like one would do for an animal sacrifice on the alter - and all that for God? What would you think about your father and about such a God who demands this? Isaac's reactions could soon be recognized, and indirectly Lucifer's attempted sacrifice had a negative impact on Isaac.

Lucifer succeeded in influencing humans negatively, and he has been doing this until today. And he will be able to accomplish this in the future, too. He lured the priests of the second temple of Jerusalem to make statements that Abraham and Sarah were old people who had conceived a child, and that Sarah

King Solomon

Bathsheba gave birth to King David's and her second son and, upon instruction of the prophet Nathan, the parents named their son 'Solomon'. Bathsheba and David knew that their son Solomon would be the one who would eternally consolidate the Kingdom according to the promise of Yahweh/Christ.

Christ as King in Heaven had sent the Archangel Raphael (Raphaella) to Earth (Psalms 72:1-7) ⁷¹ so that she could carry out many good deeds as a reincarnated spiritual being within the body of King Solomon in order to advance human kind by one more huge step. Solomon was anointed as King when he was 30 years old by the prophet Nathan (I Chronicles 29:22-23). Solomon himself was a great prophet because the Archangel (Raphaella) was incarnate within him. He had the alphabet completed with 22 (24) letters, and he made it possible that a social structure was realized which endured until our modern world. King Solomon, a wise man and a genius, however, did not only accomplish fantastic things as a teacher of wisdom and an historian, he was also the initiator for all manner of things which catapulted mankind into new, progressive developments (politics, laws ⁷², economics, science, etc.). His Song of Songs, the poetic Psalms, demonstrate his wisdom, intelligence, and his poetic gift which surpasses that of man. Those who have read the books Solomon has partly written, his Proverbs Ecclesiastes, the Psalms and above all his Song of Songs (as the Revelation of our world history, as a dialogue between Christ and the Archangel Raphael/Raphaella) can only feel exalted and begin to realize how language is in Heaven - a language full of love, tenderness and benevolence between angels, Christ, and God. Words such as these cannot and will not be composed by a human being on Earth, who is not guided by a high spirit being or that does not have a high spiritual being incarnate in him as a human, a spiritual being, that has taken upon himself or herself a voluntary reincarnation into a human existence.

Solomon was the author of the portfolio of texts entitled “Y” (“J”) (YHWH, Yahwist) of the Old Testament and he left behind by far the most comprehensive and prophetic heritage of world history!

In order to secure respect for himself, Solomon had to strictly enforce the existing laws. One must not forget, while studying the Bible, that Baal/Lucifer and his fallen spiritual beings were mirrored in many faces and thus in many humans. They partly possessed them or they seduced them through dream visions. Solomon was repeatedly tested and had to execute his rule with unforgiving strength. There were no animal sacrifices or any other sacrificial cults during his rule even though future Bible scribes wanted to ascribe the Baal/Lucifer cult to King Solomon, too.

Solomon was not a flamboyant King. He was not surrounded by riches and treasures as one imagines Kings to be. Solomon tried to rule with modesty and wisdom by setting an example to his people. Love and

A key passage of my book refers to the following sentence of Solomon (Ecclesiastes 7:12f):

WISDOM, LIKE AN INHERITANCE IS A GOOD THING AND BENEFITS THOSE WHO SEE THE SUN.
WISDOM IS A SHELTER
AS MONEY IS A SHELTER,
BUT THE ADVANTAGE OF KNOWLEDGE
IS THIS
WISDOM PRESERVES THOSE WHO HAVE IT

Those who have by now experienced the wisdom of being, through this book, can recognize from the following sentence what Solomon intended to say in just one sentence. Whoever possesses wisdom and, therefore, knows about the plan of salvation of Christ and about the many reincarnations which we as human beings have to live through for our involvement in the war of Heaven until we return to our ancestral place in Heaven as spiritual and angelic beings and, therefore, will see the sun and with it Christ – whoever is in possession of this wisdom, is immune to the temptations of Lucifer. Naturally, we always have to make the decision with our free will whether something is good or bad, right or wrong. On Earth, money means material protection, but it does not make its owner happy. Only knowledge about the plan of salvation, as described in this book, offers those who own wisdom, therefore you as reader, certainty about the eternal spiritual life and also certainty about the real meaning of your human life!

Of course, King Solomon did not worship false gods. He was faithful to God and his King, Christ, in every respect. This does not need any further explanations. Now, you can separate the “wheat from the chaff” while studying the Bible effortlessly and, thus, recognize the truth from the falsifications and that which is divinely ordained from that which has been said by the devil.

We know that Lucifer was the male Archangel and dual partner of the female Archangel Raphael (Raphaela) in Heaven. Then, Lucifer became the renegade Archangel and King of Hell. His female dual partner who remained faithful to God and Christ in Heaven was then instructed by the King in Heaven, Christ, after she had become a human being and was an Archangel within the body of King Solomon to bring mankind onto a higher level. The question remains whether Solomon, the Archangel Raphael (Raphaela), who had become human, still liked her spiritual life partner, Lucifer, and whether Solomon therefore could not resist Moloch (Lucifer) as a human being. Questions such as these are only asked by humans. Christ expressed himself clearly through the prophet Ezekiel towards Lucifer with the following words (Ezekiel 28:12), “You were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.”

God's plan of creation makes an immense difference. Since Heaven began, that is, through God's first creation, namely that of his son, Christ, everything that has been born in Heaven will live ETERNALLY. In Heaven (the ethereal world) there is no cycle of death and reincarnation. There is eternal spring, eternal summer, eternal autumn and eternal winter - depending upon where a free spiritual being or angelic-being wants to be in Heaven or is allowed to be. There is nothing in Heaven that does not exist on Earth, and Jesus/Christ has stressed repeatedly (John 8:23 and John 18:33f.):

I AM A KING
BUT MY KINGDOM IS NOT OF THIS WORLD.

Everything has its design; everything has its hierarchy in Heaven, too. Otherwise, there would be chaos in Heaven, just as chaos rules on Earth or in Hell. But in Heaven where absolute freedom, absolute love, absolute goodness, absolute equality, absolute peace, and absolute eternity rule – in Heaven one can live eternally and fulfill one's tasks with joy and with gratitude.

From this ethereal world, the home we all know from where you and I come, too, from this world of Heaven, Christ as King in Heaven went on his way and, as the second highest of all spirit-beings on Earth, he had himself incarnated into the body of Jesus.

The highest spirit-being is God, the Creator of all being!

As mentioned before, Jesus/Christ was born by his dear mother in the normal way just like you and I. Mary was the incarnation of the female Archangel Raphael (Raphaela), who had already been the incarnation of King Solomon and now was allowed to give life to the second highest spirit being, the King in Heaven, Christ – as the human being, Jesus.

Mary is NOT the mother of God, but she is the mother of the human being Jesus who is the incarnation of Christ (John 8:23).

Evangelists like Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, who wrote down the story of Jesus/Christ for following generations, were chosen by the spiritual world. They had surely gathered certain materials. Similar to the inspiration of great composers, inventors, artists, and thinkers, the evangelists, too, received instructions from God's world of Heaven for writing the story of Jesus/Christ.

They all spoke Aramaic, but the people of the upper-class of Jewish society also learned Greek. Aramaic was rather a simple language, a dialect. Thus, all Aramaic and Hebrew scriptures had first to be translated into more sophisticated Greek language. Much remained incomplete.

The Last Supper

The Last Supper, this commemoration of Jesus/Christ, does not only make sense, but it is the absolute key event of this book. For what Jesus/Christ tells us here in a few words includes everything that you have learned from this book about the wisdom of our being and consequently the plan of salvation.

The wonderfully divine words that Jesus/Christ spoke to his disciples during this farewell celebration (Matthew 26:26-39) were:

“Take and eat; this is my body.” Then he took a cup and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them saying, “Drink from it, all of you this is my blood from the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you I will not drink from this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father’s Kingdom.”

Here Jesus/Christ says clearly: “Celebrate this farewell celebration with me in the future as a commemoration, break the bread symbolically and distribute it as a reminder that I let myself be nailed to the cross for the salvation of fallen spiritual beings and that I died for you. Drink of the wine as a symbol of my spiritual blood with which we are all connected and related. He also says, I will wait in Heaven as King in Heaven, as the trunk of the tree of life (grapevines) as long as it takes until all fallen spiritual beings (that is, all the Archangels and also Lucifer, too, and Ohala and Oholiba and all fallen Princes/Princesses of Heaven, all together 5 females and 5 males, and all other fallen angels, including you and me) will have returned to their ancestral place at this tree of life. Then we can celebrate together again in the Kingdom of God in Heaven!”

The Judgment and the Death on the Cross

Jesus was a Jew, who came from the tribe of Judah. David, Solomon, and Jesus’ earthly father, Joseph, also came from the tribe of Judah. We must not judge the high priest, Caiphus, or even the people of the Jewish faith because they were directly or indirectly involved in the judgment and death of Jesus/Christ. It was written that way, and it was planned that way by God and Christ. No religion is perfect, not the Jewish nor the Christian nor the Islamic because they are led by humans. No human being can claim to be perfect or to know everything and to be able to do everything. We humans learn through our mistakes. Those who have now experienced the wisdom of being in this book should pass on this knowledge and not just keep it to themselves and their families.

But one should not proselytize. For everyone has to light the spark of faith for him or herself. I hope this book convinces skeptics and critics and gives them a little positive push in the right direction; above all, in consideration of a future in which we still talk about a democratically led, monotheistic religious movement and not about many churches and religions any longer, which harm faith and progress more than they help!

²³ One can read about a Pharaoh in this story about Joseph in Egypt, but also about a King. This was probably the King of the people of the Hyksos, who invaded the North of Egypt with their chariots around the year 1700 BC and occupied the throne of the Pharaohs for some time. The Egyptians copied those chariots for their military campaigns. The Hyksos were a conquering people that ruled the conquered countries with secondary Kings. Thus, a King from the people of the Hyksos ruled during the time that Joseph spent in Egypt. A native Pharaoh would never have advanced an Israelite to become a minister for the Egyptians looked down on the Hebrews (the word Hebrew means foreigner for the Egyptians) and thus they would also have looked down on one Israelite. That Joseph could score so fate-decisive with his dream with a Hyksos-King was therefore, absolutely realistic. He had not just announced the fat and the lean 7 years in the year 1658 BC, but he had also already announced the eruption of the volcano Santorin which probably happened in the year 1651 BC, that is, 7 years after the fat years. Had Joseph also succumbed to the temptation of Baal/Lucifer during his Earthly life? Or did Joseph help the Egyptian people through his dream visions as they are described in the Bible in order to be knighted by the Hyksos King (Pharaoh) to become a provincial governor who would collect the money from the wheat sales of the Egyptians and the Canaanites and who would eventually seize cattle and, finally, land as payment for the wheat

VII. Chronology

(This chronological table cannot be guaranteed to be absolutely accurate.)

Before Christ = BC

About 10,000 BC	Sphinx of the Nile already built by humans. Builders unknown
About 8,500 BC	Noah
About 8,500 BC	Deluge in Egypt and Mesopotamia, amongst other reason through flooding through the break of the Bosphorus Strait, when the Mediterranean Sea spilt into the Black Sea
About 3,000 BC	Oldest known written evidence of the Sumarians
2700 – 2050 BC	Old Egyptian empire with the capital Memphis. Building of the pyramids
2400 – 2300 BC	Archive of Ebla with names of the patriarchs .
2251 BC	Year of Abraham's birth
2239 BC	Year of Sarah's birth
2229 BC	Abraham moves out of Ur
2206 BC	Birth of Ishmael by Hagar
2205 BC	Isaac's birth by the 34-year old Sarah
2198 BC	Abraham wants to sacrifice his son Isaac
2181 BC	Rebecca's birth
2167 BC	Sarah, wife of Abraham, dies at the age of 72
2166 BC	Abraham dies at the age of 85
2145 BC	Birth of the twins Esau and Jacob
2120 BC	Isaac dies at the age of 85
2120 BC	Jacob and his mother Rebecca are killed by Esau. Jacob dies at the age of 25, Rebecca at the age of 61.

About 2050 BC	Intefs of Thebes founds the 11th dynasty, the worship of Amon (Lucifer) subsequently begins in Egypt
2050 – 1550 BC	Middle empire in Egypt with the capital Thebes
About 2000 BC	Begining of the Egyptian “Propheties”
About 1991 BC	For the god “Amon” (Lucifer) for the King of the gods appears in Egypt as a name for a pharaoh
About 1962 BC	Life story of the Egyptian Sinuhe
19th Century BC	Occurrence of the root of the word s-l-m in texts of ostracism of the 12th dynasty of the pharaohs
18th Century BC	Cunei forms of scripts of Mari at the middle Euphrates
18th-15th BC	Archive of Alalach
About 1700 BC	Hyksos enter Egypt from the North
1714 BC	Birth of Jacob-Israel
1698 BC	Jacob-Israel moves into Haran
1684 BC	Birth of Joseph
1674 BC	Joseph moves to Egypt as a 10 year old slave
About 1651 BC	The volcano on the island Santorini erupts, destroys the Minoan culture, gigantic cloud of ashes causes the 7 year long famine in Egypt as well as tsunami waves in Mesapotamia
About 1644 BC	Jacob-Israel immigrates into Egypt at the age of 70, together with his sons
1627 BC	Death of Jacob-Israel at the age of 87
About 1600 BC	Horses are introduced as draft animals for light two-wheeled chariots in Egypt
1550 – 1050 BC	New empire in Egypt
1506 – 1494 BC	Pharaoh Thutmose I. He extends his rule into Nubia and to the Euphrates

15th Century BC	Cunei form scripts of Nuzi-Arrapha
About 1500 BC	Belief in Maat documented in Egypt
1490 – 1468 BC	The female pharaoh Hatshepsut begins trade across the Red Sea
1490 – 1436 BC	Pharaoh Thutmose III undertakes military campaigns to Palestine and Syria after 1468.
14th Century BC	Archive of Tell el-Amarna
14th-13th BC	Archive of Ugarit
About 1370 BC	Amenophis IV, later called Echnaton ascends to the throne of the pharaoh
About 1325 BC	Hazor destroyed by Pharaoh Sethos I
1332 – 1323 BC	Pharaoh Tutankhamun
1315 – 1249 BC	Rule of Pharaoh Ramses II
13th Century BC	Attack of the Hittites in Egypt
1284 BC	Birth of Moses
1282 BC	Ramses II is marrying the Hittite Princess
1257 BC	The prophet Joshua is born
1249 BC	Death of Pharaoh Ramses II
1249-1204 BC	Rule of the Pharaoh Merenptah
May 12th 1244 BC	Exodus of the Israelites from Egypt under the leadership of Moses and erection of the Israel-Stele by the Pharaoh Merenptah
1244 – 1204 BC	The Israelites stay in the desert with Moses
About 1210 BC	The Philistines are mentioned by inscription for the first time in the 8th year of the rule of Ramses III
1204 BC	Moses dies at the age of 80
1204 BC	The Israelites move into Canaan together with Caleb and Joshua
1178 - 1095 BC	Under the rule of Ramses IV until the rule of Ramses XI the rule of Egypt is limited to the land around the Nile

IX. Preview

Dear Readers,

For reasons of space, I have decided to write another book in which I will be able to deal more directly with the life and death of human beings and their spiritual home in Heaven. I also want to treat in more detail the themes “health” and “physical fitness”, and I also want to focus more on the possible structures of a monotheistic worldwide movement.

Every human deserves to be reborn in a country which is appropriate for his abilities in relation to his spiritual level. I consider myself lucky to have been born in Switzerland, where there is still a direct democracy and where one is raised accordingly. Free democracy best suits the free will of each human. Dictatorships and anarchy profit only a few people. They are most useful for those in power who serve Lucifer, as free thinking humans prefer a democratic system and consider themselves happy to be born in a free country. But, this is also intrinsically connected to the levels of ascension as human beings. We have all lived through these levels of ascension through many human lives – from the starving poor human life full of want, to the human life full of hatred and fanaticism. You and I have lived once before through all facets of a human life which can still be observed on Earth. Therefore, we must be grateful for the privilege of growing up in a free country in our life today. But it is also important that we defend for this democratic freedom because it is only in a free democratic country that one can live the faith.

However, there is a danger in this. Where democracies separate religion and state and do not support religion, a dangerous vacuum can emerge. We are in the middle of a religious war. The word “war” hurts just as it is being written down or pronounced. But we humans are on our way to lacerate each other up about faith in the same god. Who is right? Which dogma is the right one? Who is the leader? Power has the same effect on many people as being possessed does and many would love to become Ayatollah, Bishop, Archbishop, Iman, Cardinal, Mufti, Pope, Patriarch, Rabbi, etc.

The political system of Switzerland is simple and could serve as an example for a new monotheistic form of society. Much more could be introduced in solving issues within monotheistic religions. The leading Rabbis, Bishops and Imans could meet each year as a kind of think tank. This would have to include progressive thinkers from each of the three religions. As described in this book, the “Medallion of God” (God's Medaillon) they could attempt to correct the translation errors in the Bible (Old and New Testament). They could reveal the intended falsifications, especially in regard to the Council of Nicea and Constantinople, discuss them, replace them and realize the changes.

Bit by bit groups could form these three religions, which collectively would search for a solution which could enable all three religions to pray together to the same God and apply the same rules. After several generations of growing together, just like a political system, a group of religious leaders could be elected which would be comprised of Seven People from the three common religions (structured according to the separation of powers – legislative, executive and judicial). I would propose to adopt the structure of the Swiss political system in the new world church. Attention would have to be especially given to proportionate representation of each religion according to its strength in numbers. Just as it is in Heaven, the proportion of women and men within each committee of the division of tasks should, without exception, be fifty/fifty. Of the seven-strong religious presidium a president would be elected every two years who would preside over this monotheistic world church for two years. The distribution of votes, given that there are SEVEN of them, would always allow for a decisive vote democratically even if the remaining six were split evenly. As time goes by the religious notions would blend together positively in such a way that from the three current religions one world religion, monotheism would arise.

In no way, in any statement in this book is it my intention to offend any person because of his or her religion or because of his or her difference of opinion about the meaning of life. Everyone is entitled to voice his own opinion and live his or her own religion with their free will. Furthermore, I am convinced that other world religions such as Buddhism or Hinduism can also be integrated completely. These believers can also find a place in this new world religion as soon as their religious leaders realize that the teachings of reincarnation are now also valid for the traditional monotheistic religions, that is, Judaism, Christianity and Islam. In this way, those religions which are prevalent-ly practiced in India and Asia, would join this great new monotheistic world religion. In the end, we would have only one world religion on Earth, and this could be the start of toward a joyful conclusion. This would be the beginning for mankind to attain worldwide religious peace on planet Earth and the fulfillment of the prophecy “AND THE LAST WILL BE THE FIRST”. This will be achieved through this new religion to God through the notion that Christ is King in Heaven and that Lucifer is King in Hell. This means that when the last one that is Lucifer also finds the difficult way from Hell into many reincarnations, that is, through many human lives – finds belief in Christ and God again and practices it – then this will be the end of our Earth and our Universes. For then, there will be no need for this coarse material world any longer. For then, Lucifer, too, as the last one will again return as the first one to his place as the first archangel in Heaven and then we will again all live eternally in our ancestral places in Heaven.

In the end, the only thing that remains for me to write is;

“I am a Monotheist.”